St. Joseph's Silver Jubilee Mass

A sincere word of thanks to everyone who made last Sunday's Mass so prayerful and dignified. Thanks also to everyone who helped in the hall. It was a great day!

Light up a Life

Light up a life is a special event at the hospice which takes place next Sunday, 28th November at 6.30pm. This year's Lighting up Service will be a virtual one, with the Service being live-streamed from the grounds of the hospice. Each of the lights on the Christmas tree will be sponsored in memory or in honour of a loved one. The tree remains lit until 6th January. Please consider supporting the hospice through the remembrance of loved ones at Christmas.

Social Action Group project

The social action group is looking for your assistance with a Refugee Welcome Pack for newcomers to Scotland. A box will be placed in both churches on Sundays 28th November, 5th & 12th December. It would be helpful if a rucksack or a bag was used to include the following items: toiletries, notepad or book; hat, gloves, scarf, a memento of Scotland, books for different ages and a simple letter to say Welcome. It will not be possible to receive donations during the week.

Glasgow Churches Together with St Peter's Partick and the Local Church Community, invite you to join them for The Vigil of Saint Andrew at 7pm on Monday 29th November in the Church. Refreshments in the hall; there may even be a little session with dancing! Stand Together in Celebration of Scotland's National Saint.
