Clubs for Mature People

- ▶ Due to the recent sharp rise in Covid cases the decision has been taken not to open St. Joseph's Senior Citizens' Club until further notice.
- ▶ St. Mary's Pensioners' Club has also decided not to reopen until things are a little clearer.

Vatican Synod Consultation

Pope Francis has announced a Synod to take place in 2023. The consultation process is already underway and, in the Archdiocese of Glasgow, we have been asked to make known our views by May. In order that this response can represent our parishes, please fill out the form at the back of the Church. Please respond by 23rd January.

For our wellbeing in the days ahead...

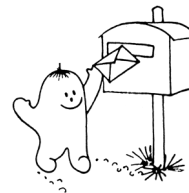

- There are rows at the back of the church for those who prefer more space.
- By law, we need your name & phone N^o if you attend.
- Facemasks must be worn in Church and mainly in hall.
- No Holy Water, Sign of peace, Chalice, Confessionals
- Please stay safe, cautious and charitable.....If you don't feel well, for whatever reason or suspicion, please don't come to anything in your church or hall.
- Keep yourself safe and aim to keep others safe as well.
- Being double jagged doesn't mean we can't fall ill or make others ill.
- Please be sensible, charitable and responsible. Thanks!

Mary's Meals

announce their 'Double the Love' campaign. Until 31st January, all donations up to a total of £1.6 million will be matched by a generous group of private donors. Every act of love will be doubled. ■ www.marysmeals.org.uk
