COVID is still taking its toll

If you are Covid-19+ve, please stay at home and follow government guidelines. There is no legal requirement to wear facemasks in Church, though you may wish to continue the practice. Please respect others' different opinion. Stay safe and help to keep others safe.

Fr. Paul and Deacon John would like to thank everyone for your good wishes and wish you and your families a holy and joyful celebration of Easter.

A Word of Thanks to everyone in both parishes who have participated in and help with the celebration of Holy Week and the Easter Triduum. As we continue to emerge from lockdown, it's great to see more and more people returning to the Church and participating in the different liturgies.
